2. With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application and necessary to the claimed invention, this opinion has been established on the basis of:
 - a. type of material
 - a sequence listing
 - table(s) related to the sequence listing
 - b. format of material
 - in written format
 - in computer readable form

WRITTEN OPINION OF THE INTERNATIONAL SEARCHING AUTHORITY

International application No.
PCT/IL04/00310

Box No. V Reasoned statement under Rule 43 bis.1(a)(i) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Statement

Novelty (N)	Claims 1-52	YES
	Claims NONE	NO
Inventive step (IS)	Claims 7-25 and 38-40	YES
	Claims 1-6,26-37 and 41-52	NO
Industrial applicability (IA)	Claims 1-52	YES
	Claims NONE	NO

2. Citations and explanations:

Claims 1-6, 26-37 and 41-52 lack an inventive step under PCT Article 33(3) as being obvious over Brusic Kaufman et al. Brusic Kaufman et al discloses a composition useful for formation of a passivating layer on a surface comprising a solution having a pH about 2-12 and having an oxidation potential sufficient to oxidize the surface to form copper oxides, abrasive particles are metal oxides, including alumina, ceria, germania, silica, titania, zirconia, abrasive particles comprise between about 1.5% - 6% by weight of composition (note col. 4, line 55 to col. 7, line 25, col. 9, lines 28-38).

Claims 7-25 and 38-40 meet the criteria set out in PCT Article 33(2)-(3), because the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest the oxidation potential is more positive than $P_{pH} V$ relative to saturate calomel reference electrode where $P_{pH} = -0.05 \times pH + 0.425$ or a cation from alkaline metal cations or alkaline earth metal cations and an anion of a weak acid.

Claims 1-52 meet the criteria set out in PCT Article 33(4), and thus having industrial applicability because the subject matter claimed can be made or used in industry.
